Holts in Lancashire since 13th Century

Holt of Castleton Hall
(c.1523-1715)
Adam Holt 1523
Charles Holt 1560
Holt of Stubley from 1640 in new Hall

Holt of Gristlehurst Hall
(c. 1449-1659)
Formerly part of the ancient manor of Ashworth.
Ralph Holt 2nd son of the Holt of Stubley

Holt of Bridge Hall
(1445 – 1691) nr Heap Bridge
Roger Holt, younger son of the Holt of Gristlehurst

Holt of Stubbleye Hall, Bacup, nr Manchester
(1606 – 1911)
Offshoot of the Holt of Gristlehurst

Holt of Little Mitton Hall, nr Clitheroe, (1664-1747) sold to Alexander Holt of Gristlehurst in 1664.

The Holt
The Holt in the township of Butterworth (14c. – 16c.)
Holt of Stubley original residence

Gooselane Grange
purchased by Robert Holt of Castleton 1626

Naden Head
Charles Holt of Stubley 1561

Spotland Manor
Thomas Holt bought 1542

Hundersfield Manor
Robert Holt

Holt of Lower Hey, Castleton (1556-1808)
Adam Holt, Junior branch of Holt of Stubley. Taken arms of Holt of Aston in Warwickshire.

Holt of Ashworth Hall
(c.1348-1700)
Hugh son of John del Holt gained Hall by marriage. Closely related to Holts of Gristlehurst

Manor of Stydd, Ribchester
(1543 – 1667) bought by Thomas Holt of Gristlehurst

Holt of Balderstone Hall, Castleton (c.1418-1676)
Geoffrey del Holt brother of Hugh del Holt of Ashworth gained Hall by marriage.

Holt of Mosside in Castleton (1594-1813) Adam Holt

Holt of Holt Farm, Standish

Coppull Hall (1597)
Edward Holt

Holt of Shevington & Ince
Ince Hall (1726)
Edward Holt